Christmas Season Activities

As the Christmas season fast approached, the Sanborn Gratiot Memorial Home Auxiliary was busy planning activities for the residents. One activity that the residents love is the annual trolley ride through town to see the Christmas lights. Christmas spirit filled the air as the Sanborn residents boarded the Port Huron Museum Trolley for the Christmas Lights Trolley Tour on Wednesday December 13th. Before everyone headed out into cold, the Auxiliary provided hot soups to keep them warm during the ride. The trolley toured many city streets to view the colorful light displays, including Sherman Woods, Pine Grove Park, and downtown Port Huron. When they returned home, Auxiliary members, Bonnie and Cheryl, served hot chocolate and homemade Christmas cookies as they listened to Christmas music fill the air!

To keep the festivities going, Friday, December 15th members of the Port Huron Northern High School Choir, under the direction of Mr. D'Hondt, sang a variety of ever popular Christmas songs. Auxiliary member, Cheryl Frank said, "Having the young people visit and entertain was a great treat, along with the sweet cookies served by Auxiliary members Maggie and Nancy. Merry Christmas to All of the Sanborn Family!"
